

Ed Blainey, a close friend of many of us in the hobby, died July 31st at the age of 64. Ed provided the sound effects for many radio shows since 1934 including THE FAT MAN, GANGBUSTERS, TERRY AND THE PIRATES and HOP HARRIGAN. With his wife, Norma, he attended our 1977 and 78 conventions at which he helped provide the sound effects for workshops and the radio shows. He was currently providing sound effects for ALL MY CHILDREN...Ed was instrumental in locating many personalities for our conventions and was very enthusiastic about our activities. He and Norma were especially friendly with Joe Webb and his fiancée, Anne Nikl...Ed will be missed by all of us.

THE ALLEN ROCKFORD MEMORIAL AWARD: At our convention on Oct. 20th we would like to make a special award, presented annually, to an individual who has made an exceptional and unselfish contribution to our hobby of old-time radio. Allen, who died Mar. 29, made such a contribution, both with his monthly publication and his radio programs. Don Richardson, who worked with Allen, has supported the idea. Roger Hill of NARA, a friend of mine since 1970, had the same idea which he mentioned in the spring issue of NARA NEWS. I have written to Roger and we are going to work together with all other interested clubs and individuals...We would like to present the first award Oct. 20th at our convention but we need your help. Will all clubs and individuals consider a worthy recipient of our first award and send in your nomination by Oct. 1st with the reasons for your choice. This will give me time to purchase the award and contact the recipient to see if he/she can come. The person with the most votes will be presented the award...The criteria would be excellence and unselfishness in our hobby. It could be involvement with books, newsletters, clubs, charity work, radio shows, logs, etc., now or in the past...If satisfactory involvement and response is not received by Oct. 1st we will consider not making the award until next year. Please meet collectively or individually and send in your votes and ideas... Please send your votes either to me, Jay Hickerson, or Joe Webb, Box 267, Centuck Station, Yonkers, NY 10710.
